Directions

Achmelvich Beach Youth Hostel is 4 miles northwest of Lochinver. Take the B869 for 2 miles and then left for 1 mile. Drive right round to the beach car park.

Parking

Due to planned upgrades to the beach carpark, there will be restricted parking throughout the 2024 season.

Landowners surrounding the hostel are making arrangements for limited parking on the land surrounding their crofts. A daily fee of £5 is likely to apply and will be payable in cash, directly to the owner. Unfortunately this will not be available to pre-book and will be managed on a first come basis.

Please note, the road is unsuitable for coaches, which should be parked in Lochinver. There is no bike store.

Local activities

Stunning Achmelvich Beach is close by.

Lochinver is just a few miles away, with an excellent visitor centre and local arts & crafts including the Highland Stoneware Pottery.

The hostel is an ideal base for climbing some of the northern mountains.

Accessibility

Achmelvich Beach is not suitable for people with impaired mobility. Please contact the youth hostel or the reservations team for more information.

Welcome to Criarlarich Youth Hostel

Set at the foot of the Criarlarich Mountains, our Youth Hostel is a great base for exploring the Northern area of Loch Lomond and Trossachs National Park.

At the halfway point on the West Highland Way, the hostel provides a welcome rest for tired feet, to re-fuel, dry your kit and equipment, and get a good night's sleep.

For Munro Baggers, Criarlarich's Central Scotland location is the ideal base to reach many of the Hugh Munro 3000ft mountains; we believe there are in the region of 70 Munros within 45 minutes' drive taking in the Southern Highland, and South West Highlands Munro regions.

Our Hostel facilities are ideal for the walking, rambling, university, and mountaineering groups.

Directions

The youth hostel is 150m on the left after the local shop. If you miss the A82 south roundabout, you can access the village from the west - just follow the signs for Criarlarich Village, go under the railway bridge, pass the T-junction, go under the railway viaduct and take the first right junction - we are up the road on the left.

From A85 from Stirling-Criarlarich:

take the first junction on the left after the police station. Continue up Station Road and the youth hostel is 150m on the left after the local shop.

SatNav postcode FK20 8QN Hostelling Scotland, Station Road, Criarlarich.

Parking

The car park in front of the hostel will hold around 23 cars, or 2 coaches and fewer cars.

There's secure cycle storage for up to 16 bikes (30m from main building).

Local Activities

Crianlarich Youth Hostel has in the region of 70 Munros within 45 minutes' drive and it's also a key location for walkers at the half-way point for undertaking the West Highland Way.

Crianlarich Community Woodland Walk and Cruach Ardrain Munro start from the youth hostel and can be accessed via forestry service roads.

Ben More and Stob Binnien are 3 miles to the east and also within walking distance from the hostel.

For other Munros locally, we suggest bicycles, car, or public transport via excellent rail and bus links to access them.

There are regular visits from steam trains in the summer travelling to Mallaig via the famous Glenfinnan Viaduct from Harry Potter fame. Crianlarich train station is 5 minutes' walk from the hostel.

St Fillan's Priory; the healing pools, and Dalrigh Battlefield where Robert the Bruce fought the Clan MacDougall in 1306 are 4 miles away.

Other activities nearby, or within an hour's drive, include fishing for brown trout and salmon on the River Fillan, Loch Dochart and River Dochart; permits can be bought here at the hostel from £8.00 per day.

There are 9-hole golf courses at Killin (11 miles) and Dalmally (16 miles) and gold panning in Tyndrum (5 miles).

The Rob Roy Way is a short distance from the hostel making us an ideal overnight stay for cyclists and walkers completing this iconic challenge; we have secure bike storage.

The nearest Tourist Information Centre is in Tyndrum but please ask the staff any questions to see if they can help.

Accessibility

Crianlarich Youth Hostel is suitable for people with impaired mobility:

- Disabled access is good, with ramped access to the front entrance of the Hostel and the front door can extend when required.
- Wheelchairs and buggies have excellent access and a triple en-suite room (1 bunk + 1 single) with wheelchair access wet room facilities available on the ground floor (please check availability at time of booking).
- There's an extra toilet facility on the ground floor opposite reception.

Contact the youth hostel or the reservations team for further information.

Shopping

The youth hostel sells general supplies including frozen meals, ice cream, canned foods, UHT milk, soft drinks and sweets. Sundries include local maps, postcards and basic toiletries.

We offer a range of local beers, cider and wine.

The nearest small shops are at Glenbrittle campsite (1.5 miles) and Carbost (7 miles), though these have limited opening hours. There are supermarkets in Portree (23 miles) & Broadford (31 miles).

Directions

Car: A87 to Sligachan (signed Portree). A863 to Drynoch (signed Dunvegan), B8009 to Carlost, then turn left onto the unclassified single-track road to Glenbrittle, 7 miles from the turn off.

Bus: the nearest bus stop is at Sligachan, which is 15 miles away. Please note there is no public transport to/from Glenbrittle. There is a limited bus service to Carlost the McDonald 607 & 608 but it is only 3 times a day and leaves Portree at 12.50, 15.30 & 17.45.

On foot: for the experienced walker there is a strenuous moorland track over the bealach from Sligachan (4.6 miles) before joining the road for a further 3 miles. The path is not suitable for cyclists.

Parking

There is off-road parking in front of the hostel.

There is secure cycle storage for 10 bicycles in the outhouse close to the main building.

Local activities

- For the experienced mountaineer the Skye Munros on the Cuillin will provide a challenging playground.
- Glen Brittle forest has a few tracks suitable for some mountain biking with great views.
- If you haven't brought a bike, consider a rental from Skye Bike Shack with collection at the youth hostel available.
- For a less strenuous pace, and the less experienced, there are coastal/lower-level walks for all abilities and weather conditions.

- The magical Fairy Pools are close by with wildlife to watch, as well as archaeological sites and geology to explore.
- Glenbrittle beach is only 1.5 miles away and you can take a tour of the world famous Talisker Distillery (7 miles) or Dunvegan Castle (26 miles).
- Local cuisine includes the wonderful Oyster Shed near the distillery.
- Keep an ear out for traditional music sessions at the Old Inn in Carlost.
- With no light pollution, Glenbrittle is an ideal spot for stargazing (if the Cuillin don't bring the clouds!).

Accessibility

Currently Glenbrittle is not suitable for people with impaired mobility. Please contact the youth hostel or the reservations team for more information.

- Check-in from 16.30-21.30
- Checkout by 10.00

Late arrival and access outside opening hours is by pre-arrangement only.

Guests in private rooms do not have to vacate during the day as long as they allow cleaners in to empty bins, etc.

Guests arriving by public transport before check-in time of 16.00 are welcome to drop off luggage, which is stored free of charge in a locked luggage room.

Dogs are welcome, for a small fee, when booking a private room.

Please notify us in advance to ensure that a dog friendly room is available.

Rooms

Capacity 74 in 2 buildings.

Main building (54 beds)

- 3 four-bedded
(2 with single-over-double & 1 with bunks)
- 7 six-bedded

All rooms are en-suite. There are also 2 public bathrooms on the first floor. Room configurations may be subject to occasional change.

Oban Lodge (20 Beds)

- 5 double-bedded
- 5 twin-bedded

All rooms are en-suite and are perfect for families or private room hire.

Renta-Hostel

The Lodge is available to hire for sole use at a very competitive price.

Catering

A Wee Breakfast, cooked breakfasts and packed lunches are available throughout the year.

Evening meals are available for groups of 10 or more - by prior arrangement only with the hostel at time of booking.

Breakfast is served 07.30-09.00, but may be available earlier by prior arrangement with the hostel.

Breakfast and packed lunches should be booked during check-in or by 21.30 the previous evening at the latest.

We recommend that groups of 10 or more book meals at least 4 weeks before arrival.

Self-catering

Both the main building and the lodge have kitchens available for guests and are equipped with everything you could need to create a simple snack or a gourmet meal - pots, pans, glasses, cookers, hobs, microwave, freezer (main building only), kettles and water boiler, sinks, drying cloths, washing-up liquid, recycling bins, teapots, water jugs, cooking utensils, casseroles, etc.

Crockery and cutlery are provided and all we ask is that you wash dishes and tidy up after use.

The kitchens are open from 07.00-13.00 and from 14.00-22.00.

Facilities

In the main building, the lounge can seat about 20 people. It has a small library, board games, toy box and TV. The dining room can seat around 50 and the self-catering kitchen about 30.

The kitchen/lounge in the lodge can seat about 20 people and also has a TV.

A laundry room is available. It has a token operated washer/dryer (tokens can be purchased at reception).

The laundry is closed to guests 07.00-15.00, but a drying room is freely accessible.

Wi-Fi access is free.

Security

All rooms have lockers. You can bring your own padlock or buy one at reception if necessary.

A locked cycle shed can hold up to 20 bikes.

Shopping

There's a small shop at reception where you can buy confectionary, soft drinks and other sundry items.

A selection of wines, bottled beers and ciders is also available.

There are three supermarkets on the outskirts of town as well as shops in the town centre.

Directions

Bus/train/ferry: the bus, train and ferry terminals are about a 10 minute walk away. Keeping the sea on your left, walk around the bay and Oban Youth Hostel is on the seafront on your right.

Car: as you descend the hill into the town, continue through the first roundabout and at the second one turn right. Continue for about 0.25 mile and the hostel is on your right.

Parking

The car park, which is free, can hold about 14 cars and is on a first come first served basis.

If coaches inform the youth hostel 48 hours prior to arrival, we will try to reserve a space (not guaranteed).

Alternative parking (chargeable) is a 5 minute walk from the youth hostel.

Oban Lodge

Local activities

Oban Youth Hostel can supply lots of information on things to see and do and family activities - such as the Highland Glass Workshops – The Rockfeild centre has multiple activities to join in, Atlantis sports centre has a climbing wall, also a large pool & outdoor activity park for rainy days.

Oban is fast becoming a centre for all water sports, which includes SUP'S Foiling, Kayaking, Wild Water Swimming, all these activities can be found on the Facebook page obanoutdoors. Local forest walks included Sutherlands Grove & Glencrutten forest. Climbing& cycling, from local rides and off road trails to Oban being the starting point for the Hebridean Way and the long distance Sustrans route 78 to Fort William & beyond.

Oban also is the home of Local golfer Robert Macintyre who still plays on the challenging course at Glencruitten Golf Club, non- members welcome.

There are various local festivals including Highlands and Islands Music Festival, Seafood Festival, Winter Festival and The Royal Highland Games. Oban is also an important venue for Shinty competitions. Several venues have traditional music throughout the summer season.

Accessibility

There are ramps to the main and lodge buildings (but not to the laundry and drying room). One of the ground floor double/twin rooms in the lodge has disabled access facilities. There's a disabled toilet in the main building reception.

Please contact the youth hostel or the reservations team for more information.
