Shopping

The youth hostel sells a range of groceries including soft drinks and chocolates, as well as a good variety of frozen self-catering meals. Sundries on sale include local maps, postcards and basic toiletries

Alcoholic beverages are also on sale.

The nearest shop (in the petrol station) is in Shiel Bridge 1.5 miles away.

Directions

Bus: take a bus to Shiel Bridge from Inverness, Glasgow, Edinburgh or Skye. From the bus stop it's about a 2 mile walk to the hostel.

Train: take the train to Kyle, then catch the bus, walking the final 2 miles.

Car: from Inverness or Fort William take the road to the Isle of Skye. Turn off A87 at Shiel Bridge (signposted Ratagan). After 0.75 mile turn right down to the hostel.

Foot: from Shiel Bridge, walk 2 miles, following the signs for Ratagan. Walk through the village on the loch-side to the hostel.

Parking

The car park will hold around 14 cars or 9 cars and 1 coach.

There's secure cycle storage for up to 8 bikes.

Local activities

There are seals, otters, badgers and pine martens in the area. Red deer are numerous and on the mountains you can see ravens, ptarmigan, sea eagles, golden eagles and mountain hares.

Ratagan Youth Hostel is only 8 miles from world-famous Eilean Donan Castle.

The Five Sisters of Kintail are within easy reach, along with an almost endless choice of alternative walks

Horse riding is available in Ratagan and Shiel Bridge. Also increasingly popular is sea kayaking. Kayaking taster weekends and kayaking adventure tours can be arranged by local NTS rangers

Accessibility

Currently Ratagan has limited facilities for people with impaired mobility. Please contact the youth hostel or the reservations team for more information.
